

LOS ANGELES PACIFIC
UNIVERSITY

MASTER OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION (MPA)

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Master of Public Administration (MPA) degree program is designed to prepare individuals for leadership opportunities in the field of public governance and, increasingly, in non-governmental organizations and the nonprofit sector. The MPA student will apply professional knowledge, practical skills, and a Christian worldview to graduate level topics including organizational leadership, public policy development and evaluation, political strategy for problem solving, finance for decision making, stakeholder engagement with diverse populations, and values-based ethics. Students are equipped to pursue administrative careers in public service including various levels of government, law enforcement, non-profit organizations, and public works.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Students are equipped to pursue in-demand careers in the field of public administration in both government and non-governmental organizations, including nonprofit organizations. Potential employers include local, county, or state government; non-governmental organizations; nonprofit organizations; or public works agencies.

Highlights

- A focus on the knowledge and skills for effective leadership in a variety of organizational settings
- A practical blend of theory and real-world application of relevant principles
- Evaluation of decision-making processes using biblical concepts and values-based ethics
- Graduates leave prepared for leadership careers in multiple fields, or to continue with doctoral studies
